MEMORANDUM FOR THE CHAIRMAN, DCI SECURITY COMMITTEE

SUBJECT: Subcommittee Chairmanships

1. In response to your memoranda of 23 and 26 May 1983 regarding subcommittee chairmanships, I wish to nominate [redacted] for the chairmanship of the SECOM Security Awareness Subcommittee. [redacted] previously represented NSA on the Security Awareness Working Group from 1977 through 1980. He currently serves as the Deputy Chief of the Security Awareness Division, where he oversees the development and implementation of security awareness programs for the NSA population at Headquarters, field locations and contractor facilities.

2. Since entering on duty with NSA 19 years ago, [redacted] has obtained an impressive range of experience in the security arena. After graduation from the University of Maryland with a BA in history in 1964, he began his career in the Office of Security as an investigator. Beginning in 1968, [redacted] served as an adjudicator as well as an industrial security and field security inspector. In 1973 he began a variety of specialized security assignments in which he provided personnel, physical, counterintelligence and industrial security guidance to NSA field personnel and to our Research and Engineering organization. [redacted] also participated in a year long project studying the hostile threat to communications security, which required substantial research and liaison outside of NSA. From 1977 through 1980 he was assigned to the Security Awareness Division and served as the chief of the Special Projects Branch, where he was principally responsible for the concept, design and implementation of security awareness programs. After assuming additional managerial responsibilities as the chief of two separate branches in the Evaluations Division, [redacted] returned in 1982 to the Security Awareness Division in his current position.
